Shirley Gage Will Graduate From High School in June

Dropout Determined to Obtain Diploma at North Side in June

By BECKY RICHARDS

When she was 16, Shirley Gage was scatterbrained. "I was a typical kid who knew everything" and saw no need for more education. So, she quit school.

Her grandparents, with whom she lived in her hometown of Windsor, Ontario, Canada, tried to get her to stay in school, but she was determined. She quit, got a job as a waitress and "never really looked to the future. As long as I had a job today, that's what counted."

She continued to work for several years. Then in about 1960, she journeyed to Waterloo to visit her mother and has never left the Fort Wayne area. She continued waitressing, working at one point at the former Azar's restaurant on the corner of Berry and Calhoun streets. If she didn't like one job, she said, she simply moved on.

This same woman today has redirected her youthful determination to quit school and live from day-to-day into a goal that will give her personal satisfaction and "peace of mind. I want to feel useful, not used."

Shirley Gage has gone back to high school. She plans to graduate with her North Side High School classmates June 1, just a month and several days before her 38th birthday. She will have the distinction of being the oldest student to graduate from a Fort Wayne high school, at least that anyone can remember.

Getting tired of waitressing and remembering some wise words of her grandfather, with whom she was very close, finally were the impetus for Gage to first approach North Side Principal Dan Howe in 1977 about coming back to high school.

"My grandfather said if I wanted anything I would have to work for it and that if it's worth having, it's worth working on, but that it all depends on me," Gage said. At the time, the words were "idle chitchat between an old man and his first grandchild," but later, Gage would realize their importance.

"My grandfather always wanted me to finish school. I know (a diploma) will not get me a high-paying job, but it will make more jobs available to me. It's something you need for yourself that tells me, 'You did it.' You don't gain anything if you don't try."

Completing her education through night classes or by earning a GED "was taking 'the chicken way out' as my grandfather would say," Gage said. "I could have taken the GED, but what satisfaction would I have saying, 'I have the equivalent of a diploma?' I don't want the equivalent of anything if I've got what it takes to get the real thing."

She began adult education classes in Fort Wayne Community Schools but felt that was not the right setting for her. Successfully going back into a school was what Gage wanted to feel she had reached her goal.

Once again, that determination and insistence was what made Dan Howe finally agree to admit Gage to North Side. When she first talked to him about the possibility, he said he would "have to investigate further, but I was very doubtful about the chances," Howe said.

But, "she wouldn't take no for an answer. She was very persistent," Howe said. She began taking classes in September, 1977, but only because she was willing to go to school full-time, was determined to graduate and agreed to abide by all rules and regulations that apply to all other students. She has not been given any adult privileges, and she has not expected any.

Such an arrangement was the only way it was possible for Gage to complete her education at North Side, Howe said. Persons who consider such a return "must be very sincere about being a full-time student on our terms or they can't enter here. We are not opening up the school for people who want something to do in their spare time."

Gage will earn 24 credits when she graduates, by going to school fulltime, including four hours each day, for eight weeks last summer.

Another stipulation of her return is that she not be given any adult privileges such as eating lunch with the teachers, and she has not expected any.

"I couldn't do any differently than the students and hold their respect," Gage said. "I couldn't be a kid in class and an adult elsewhere. I still was mentally aware of my role as a wife and mother, but physically I had to take myself out of that and into the student role. Now, I wonder how I made it through the first two weeks. Without the kids (at North Side) and my family, there is no way I could make it." Her family includes husband, Eugene Gage Jr., and two daughters at home, Casandra, 10, and Lori Ke, 6.

Gage has not tried to imitate her 16- and 17-year-old classmates, however, Howe said. "She has been very businesslike and gained the respect of students. If she had tried to be a 37½-year-old teen-ager, the kids would have run her out of school."

What she has done, Gage said, is develop an "adult to teen-ager" relationship with the students and not "mother to teen-ager."

"Curiosity took over the first day," Gage said. "The students thought I might be there to benefit the authorities. I told them that if I see you do something that you should not be doing, it's your business. I'm not your mom; I'm not your keeper. You're old enough to know right and wrong."

"As soon as they realized I would not lecture them and show them the mother image, there was no problem."

She also has imparted some wisdom to her younger classmates. Some of the kids "say I'm kinda old" to be in high school, Gage said. "I tell them that when I FEEL old, then I will be. I would venture to say I'm in my best years. I tell them you don't have to be a teen-ager to learn. There is still a lot to be learned."

East Berry was home of Civil War heroine called Mother George

Unlike its western end, Berry Street east of Calhoun has few elegant houses to recall a bygone era of rich history in Fort Wayne. Indeed, domestic elegance was never much a part of East Berry Street.

Today the street is best known by the tall structures of the Lincoln Tower, Anthony Wayne Bank, the General Telephone Co. building, and the Old City Hall, which now is the Historical Museum.

But the humble homes east of Lafayette Street and the main business district are more in keeping with the street's appearance during most of its existence, and these simple places seem to belie the historical significance of the area.

Berry Street was part of the original plat of Fort Wayne, with all its grandly named boulevards. But Berry, it seems, was named as the result of a jest. The street, so the story goes, was named for a fur trader named Benjamin Berry Kercheval. As a clerk for John Tipton, Fort Wayne Indian agent, Kercheval was a popular man, but he did not want his name given to a street in the new town. His friends, men like Henry Rudisill, promised the old trapper there would be no "Kercheval Street," in the plat then being laid out. But they promptly used the middle name, "Berry" (which is what everyone called Kercheval) to mark one of the major streets in town.

In the years after the original plat was filed, eastern additions to the town were made — in 1833 (the County Addition) and 1835 (Taber's Addition). These additions extended Berry Street to the banks of the Maumee River, just where the canal (today's railroad tracks) made a sharp northerly bend to come into the heart of Fort Wayne.

Now Berry Street, at its intersection with Clay Street, crossed the spot where General Anthony Wayne built the first American fort in the Three Rivers area. Wayne, fresh from his victory over the Indians at Fallen Timbers, had arrived with his army on Sept. 18, 1794, at the head of the Maumee, and promptly built a crude log fort. A Colonel Ham-tramck was put in charge, and the newly named Fort Wayne became the central command for the American forts throughout the region. But by 1800, a new fort had been built closer to the river and the old, first fort was torn down, leaving only the military cemetery in the lots along the future Berry Street between Lafayette and Clay.

In the decades that passed after the last of the forts was abandoned in 1819, the East Berry Street area remained an outlying part of the young town, developing very slowly by comparison to the more favored west end.

Before the Civil War, the most notable building was the old First Presbyterian Church, situated near the northeast corner of Berry and Lafayette. This was the first church built in Fort Wayne (1831), and in its basement a private school still operated in 1850. In the middle of Barr Street, at the northern corner of Berry, stood the very modest "market house" which had been built in 1853. The rest were shacks, log homes and a few frame houses.

In one of these residences between Barr and Lafayette on the northern side of Berry Street there lived one of the most extraordinary citizens ever produced by Fort Wayne. This was Eliza Hamilton George, or "Mother George," as she was known to thousands of Indiana soldiers on campaign in the South during the Civil War.

Although it is not known exactly what house she and her three daughters lived in 120 years ago in 1863, a historical marker erected by the Civil War Roundtable (a local Civil War history club) next to Shrex Office Supplies and Equipment, 323 E. Berry St., is a very likely spot. A Fort Wayne map of 1855 shows this lot to have been occupied by a simple rectangular two-story frame house; perhaps this was Mother George's home.

The neighborhood at that time (the 1840s and 1850s) was not well developed. Across the street from the George home was the original building of the First Presbyterian Church, and the most notable home on the block was that of an attorney, Henry Cooper. He lived in a two-story building made of logs taken from the fort built by Major Whistler in 1816. The GTE building now stands on the spot.

But most of the square block was unusable in any case because there was a small creek running through the area that made it an unhealthy marsh. In 1863, the street was close enough to the canal and the shanties of canal roughnecks that it was said

MOTHER GEORGE CIVIL WAR NURSE 1808-1865

The first Fort Wayne home of Mrs. Eliza E. George was near this spot. At the age of 34 she helped make Civil War nursing history. Mother George, as she was known to thousands of Union soldiers, served with front line troops in Mississippi, Tennessee, Georgia and North Carolina. Time after time she braved Confederate gunfire to comfort the sick and wounded. Mother George died at her post in Wilmington, N.C. on May 9, 1865, a victim of typhoid fever contracted from returning prisoners. This marker is erected in her memory by the

The marker above, erected in memory of Mother George, stands in the 300 block of East Berry Street, an area where she lived before becoming a Civil War nurse.

to be "so far outside the business district as to be unsafe for a lady to go there unaccompanied."

Eliza Hamilton was born in Bridgeport, Vt., in 1808, and married a man named W.L. George. She came to Fort Wayne sometime before 1850, and in that year one of her daughters, also named Eliza, married another young newcomer to the City, Sion Bass, who had come from Kentucky in 1849.

Sion Bass, the brother of John H. Bass, who later became one of Fort Wayne's greatest industrialists, joined the army in 1861 at the outbreak of the Civil War. He helped to organize the 30th Indiana Regiment of Volunteers at Camp Allen in Fort Wayne, was made colonel and given command of the unit. But at the battle of Shiloh in April 1862 Sion was shot; he died in the arms of his wife several days later.

The loss of her son-in-law and the news of the terrible suffering of Union soldiers everywhere evidently made a great impression on Mrs. George. Early in 1863, at 54 years of age, she applied for acceptance as a nurse with the Indiana Agent of the Sanitary Commission, a forerunner of the Army Nurse Corps. Objections were raised about her age, but these melted away in the face of her sensible plea, "I am old, but my health is good, and I desire to do something for those who every day expose their lives for our country."

Her value as a nurse was quickly realized in the rapidly overflowing hospitals in Memphis, her first duty station. Here, she soon was commended enthusiastically by those she worked for, from the beleaguered doctors in the field to Indiana's Governor Morton.

Mrs. George's compassion for the wounded, sick and dying soldiers was profound. She wrote to her daughters in May 1863, "My dear ones, it would make your heart ache to go through the long wards and see the pale faces, the sad and sorrowful eyes, that follow your every step." Because of her deep feelings for those in her care, she was given the title "Mother" by the troops, and this was the proud name she carried to her grave.

Her care of the soldiers caught the imagination of the Indiana press as well. The Indianapolis News, for instance, told of an occasion she sat for 20 hours with a young, frightened soldier, holding ice against his bleeding wound. Whenever she tried to have someone relieve her, the boy so painfully begged her to stay that "she forgot her own weariness and applied the ice again."

Stories about her heroism abounded. She was known to carry wounded soldiers from hospitals being shelled by the enemy. On one occasion, she steadfastly continued her work on the front lines although artillery shells and rifle bullets tore through the encampment that served as an open-air hospital.

Near the end of the war, when the Union army had broken the back of the Confederacy with Sherman's march to the sea, Mother George was assigned to the army hospital in Wilmington, N.C. There, at the same time, came 11,000 newly freed Union prisoners of war.

"Two thousand of them," Mrs. George wrote, "had not a garment upon their bodies and 200 had lost their feet by frost."

Mother George gave herself completely to help these men, many of whom were from Indiana, by overseeing the manufacturing of clothing and by long hours of nursing. But an outbreak of typhoid among the troops carried away the exhausted Mother George on May 9, 1865, a month before the end of the war.

Her body was brought back to Fort Wayne where she was buried with full military honors in Lindenwood Cemetery, the only woman to have been so honored. Later that year, the Indiana Sanitary Commission and the Fort Wayne Ladies Aid had a monument erected in her memory in the Lindenwood family plot of Stion Bass, her son-in-law. Mother George herself was buried in the same grave as her daughter, Belle Bayless, whose headstone is nearby.

In part, from the simple neighborhood surroundings of East Berry Street during the heyday of Fort Wayne's canal days Eliza George drew her strengths.

In her last letter her thoughts were of home: "The wind is whistling round the house, the cannon booming in the distance and my heart is aching for the houseless, homeless, destitute women whose husbands are in the army, fighting for their country's life. Oh my children . . . you know how like a cool draught of water to a thirsty soul, is a letter to me from home; and you know I would write if I could, but my time is not my own."

PRAYER

O GENTLEST Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy judgment but let some drops of Thy precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames and do Thou O Merciful Saviour send Thy angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

CHRISTOPHER — GETTY, (GOETTE, GOTT, GOETHE), A NATIVE OF PRUSSIA, GERMANY, WAS BORN AUGUST 20, 1823. AND CAME TO AMERICA WHEN A YOUNG MAN, ABOUT 1850,, HE LIVED IN OHIO AND LATER SETTLED IN FORT WAYNE, INDIANA. HIS MARRIAGE ^{TO} FREDERICKA — REINING (RYNINE), WHO WAS BORN SEPTEMBER 27, 1827 IN FULDA, HESSE DARMSTADT GERMANY, ~~THE TIME AND PLACE OF THEIR MARRIAGE~~ IS NOT KNOWN. — HOWEVER — WE THINK, IN 1854 SOME WHERE AROUND MARIETTA OR CINCINNATI, OHIO. DILIGENT SEARCH AND INQUIRY OF PROBATE RECORDS HAVE NOT BEEN SUCCESSFUL.

CHRISTOPHER AND FREDERICKA WERE VERY CLOSE AND ALWAYS LIVED NEAR, JOHN GRAF AND BARBARA (REINING). BARBARA AND FREDERICKA WERE SISTERS. THE U.S. CENSUS FOR OHIO, 1860, ATHENS COUNTY, CANAAN TOWNSHIP, POST OFFICE CANAANVILLE, LIST'S THEM AS NUMBERED FAMILIES #574 AND #577, ACTUALLY A MAP, SHOWS THE HOUSES TO BE ADJACENT TO ONE ANOTHER. ALSO WHEN THEY MOVED TO FORT WAYNE IN 1861, THEY LIVED IN SAME HOUSE AT 85 E. MAIN STREET, FOR PART OF THE 1ST YEAR.

JOHN GRAF WAS A NATIVE OF EPPERTSHAUSEN, DARMSTADT, AND THE REINING SISTERS WERE FROM FULDA. THE BIRTH TOWN OF CHRISTOPHER IS NOT KNOWN, BUT, WE THINK, HE CAME FROM SAME AREA OF GERMANY.

WE DON'T KNOW IF THE TWO COUPLES MET PRIOR TO COMING TO AMERICA, OR IF THEY MET ON THE BOAT COMING OVER? SEARCH OF SHIP'S PASSENGER'S LIST'S FOR PERIOD 1850-1854

The first part of the paper deals with the general theory of the problem. It is shown that the problem is equivalent to a system of linear equations. The second part of the paper is devoted to the construction of the solution. It is shown that the solution can be obtained by the method of successive approximations. The third part of the paper is devoted to the numerical solution of the problem. It is shown that the numerical solution can be obtained by the method of finite differences. The fourth part of the paper is devoted to the discussion of the results. It is shown that the results are in good agreement with the experimental data. The fifth part of the paper is devoted to the conclusion. It is shown that the problem has been solved.

HASEN'T PROVED SUCCESSFUL.

TO UNDERSTAND THE REASON AND CAUSE FOR THESE YOUNG PEOPLE TO LEAVE THEIR HOMES, ONE, ONLY NEEDS TO READ A LITTLE GERMAN 1848 HISTORY. IN NUMEROUS STATES OF GERMANY, UPRISINGS TOOK PLACE IN WHICH THE PATRIOTS DEMANDED MORE LIBERAL CONSTITUTIONS FROM THEIR RULERS. EVEN IN PRUSSIA, THE STRONGHOLD OF DESPOTISM THE KING WAS FORCED TO PROMISE CONSIDERABLE REFORM AT THE SAME TIME REPRESENTATIVES FROM ALL OVER GERMANY WERE ELECTED TO A NATIONAL ASSEMBLY AT FRANKFURT. THE OBJECT WAS TO DRAFT A CONSTITUTION FOR A UNITED GERMANY. MUCH VALUABLE TIME WAS WASTED BY THE FRANKFURT ASSEMBLY IN ARGUING ABOUT THE RIGHTS OF MAN, AND THE NATURE OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION. FINALLY, THE KING OF PRUSSIA AND OTHER GERMAN RULERS GOT THE UPPER HAND. THE ASSEMBLY WAS DISBANDED BY FORCE, AND ALL HOPE FOR THE UNION OF THE GERMAN ENDED FOR SOME TIME. MANY OUTSTANDING GERMANS FLED FROM GERMANY TO MAKE THEIR HOMES IN THE UNITED STATES.

CHRISTOPHER GETTY, WAS EMPLOYED AS A LABORER ON THE BUILDING OF THE MARIETTA AND CINCINNATI RAILROAD. THE FAMILY STORY IS THAT HE WORKED ON GRADING OF THE RIGHT OF WAY, AND BUILDING OF THE ROAD BED PRIOR TO LAYING OF THE TIES. HE ALSO FOLLOWED THIS LINE OF WORK AFTER COMING TO FORT WAYNE, FOR THE

PITTSBURGH, FT. WAYNE AND CHICAGO RAILROAD. BY 1870 THIS TYPE WORK WAS COMPLETED, AND ^{FROM THEN ON} HE WAS EMPLOYED IN THE RAILROAD SHOPS, THE CITY DIRECTORY FOR 1864 INDICATES THE FAMILY WAS LIVING IN A HOME ON THE NORTH SIDE OF BUCHANAN STREET BETWEEN, MONROE AND CLAY STREETS. THIS WAS PRIOR TO THE HOUSE NUMBERING SYSTEM.

IN LATER YEARS HE AND HIS SONS FRANK AND PHILLIP OPERATED A WOOD YARD. THEY WOULD BRING THE LOGS IN FROM THE SURROUNDING COUNTRY SIDE AND PROCESS THEM INTO FIREWOOD. TEAMS OF HORSES AND HEAVY DRAY WAGONS WERE EMPLOYED TO HANDLE THIS BUSINESS.

MR. GETTY WAS A CHARTER MEMBER OF ST PETER'S CATHOLIC CHURCH, AND HE PARTICIPATED IN THE BUILDING OF THE FIRST COMBINATION CHURCH AND SCHOOL ON ST. MARTIN STREET. THE STORY IS THAT HE SUPPLIED THE TEAM AND SCOOP USED TO DIG OUT FOR THE FOUNDATION. IN ITS EARLY STAGES OF BUILDING, IT WAS A DO IT YOUR SELF TYPE OF PARISH PROJECT.

SEVEN CHILDREN WERE BORN TO THIS UNION, OF WHICH FIVE SURVIVED, GEORGE, BORN 1-17-1855, CATHERINE, BORN 9-25-1857, FRANK 4-8-1861, XAVIER, BORN 9-4-1863 AND PHILLIP, BORN 12-19, 1867.

MR. GETTY, ENJOYED A FULL LIFE OF SEVENTY FOUR YEARS, AND PASSED AWAY, JANUARY 18, 1897, AND IS BURIED IN THE CATHOLIC CEMETERY AT FORT. WAYNE. MRS GETTY OUTLIVED HER HUSBAND AND REACHED AGE OF SEVENTY EIGHT YEARS.

Coat of Arms

Getty

Historiography

The Getty Coat of Arms, illustrated by an heraldic artist, employs symbols upon a shield following the traditional system of heraldry which originated in medieval times. Heraldry, which developed among the nobles in the 11th Century, was instituted primarily for the purpose of distinguishing one man in armor from another during the confusion of battle. The heraldic symbols, or charges, chosen by an individual for his personal coat of arms could reflect his heritage, achievement, rank, occupation or personal characteristics.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name and personal characteristics. According to Brown's Surnames, the Fossils of Speech, the surname Getty was locational in origin and meant, "one who came from Dalgetty, (windy field)." This and other sources placed the name originally in Ireland, Scotland and Germany. The most common variation of Getty is Magetty. The Getty Coat of Arms is based on information derived from its meaning, linguistics or historical interpretation.

Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In the traditional language of heraldry, the Getty Coat of Arms would be described as:

"Divided horizontally: 1st, or; two potato plants ppr.; 2nd, vert; a horse, winged, argent. A narrow engrailed horizontal band gu., placed over all."

Translation and Interpretation:

The Getty Coat of Arms is divided horizontally: the first section is gold, signifying generosity and elevation of mind, with two naturally colored potato plants; the second part is green, color of hope and joy, and bears a silver winged horse, symbol of the wind, referring to the definition of the name. A red narrow engrailed horizontal band is placed over all, its red color denoting military fortitude and magnanimity.

Information available to us indicates that in 1972 there were less than 800 heads of households in the United States with the old and distinguished Getty name. The United States Census Bureau in 1970 estimated that there were 3.1 persons per household, which means that fewer than 2480 people in the United States bear the Getty name. In comparison, some of the most common family names are shared by over two million people.

This report does not represent individual lineage or your family tree and no genealogical representation is intended or implied.

Dear Cousin Alfred:

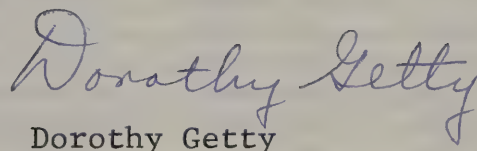

I am writing this for my mother, Florence Getty. I must apologize for taking so long to complete the enclosed.

I think your retirement project is wonderful, and when you have it completed, I certainly would love to have a copy of the whole Getty family tree.

If there is any more information I could supply and anything I can do to help you, please let me know, and I promise I won't take so long to answer next time.

Good luck to you on your project.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Dorothy Getty". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.

REQUESCANT IN PACE

PRAYER

☉ GENTLEST Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy judgment but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou, O merciful Saviour, send Thy angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord! and let perpetual light shine upon him. Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on him. Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for him. St. Joseph, friend of the Sacred Heart, pray for him.

Sweet Heart of Jesus, be my love, Sweet Heart of Mary, be my salvation.—(300 days Indul.)

Dear Mr. Rondot:

Enclosed you will find two (2) genealogical information sheets concerning the family of Oliver Phillip Getty and my own, Gerald W. Getty. I have forwarded sheets to be returned to you, to my brother Kenneth J. Getty in Minneapolis, Minnesota and Richard Getty in Los Angeles, California. I sincerely hope that they return the information sheets directly to you.

This is a laudable project that you have undertaken to establish the Getty family tree. I remember you, but a great many years ago. If I ever pass Fort Wayne, Indiana I will give you a call.

Sincerely,

GERALD W. GETTY

Dear Al and Frances:

I sincerely thank you for your hospitality when we visited with you on Saturday. Our short visit was very interesting.

In the event you are ever in this area, do not hesitate to give me a call.

Enclosed you will find what purposes to be a Coat of Arms for the name of Getty and also a little history of the name. I thought you might be interested in this. It was mailed to me some time ago and I have had it in my file. I have another copy so you may have this one.

Sincerely,

Gerald W. Getty

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm blanket of the car. I shivered slightly, but then I remembered that this was the first day of the new year. I took a deep breath and looked up at the sky. The stars were bright and clear, and the moon was full. It was a beautiful sight, and I felt a sense of peace and wonder.
I walked slowly, feeling the cold on my face. The air was crisp and clean, and I could hear the distant sounds of the city. It was a strange feeling, being in the middle of a big city and feeling so alone. But then I remembered that this was my first day in a new place.
I was starting over, and I was excited.
I took another deep breath and continued to walk. The cold was refreshing, and I felt like I was starting a new journey. I was going to make the most of this new year, and I was going to make the most of this new place.

Prayer

Lord make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

- St. Francis of Assisi

Dear Cousins.

I had a letter from George Getty , and he also sent me the letter that you had wrote to him, wanting more information about John Xavier Getty family .

First please my typeing for I had a broken right arm a year ago and it is taken some time to come back and doctors think that typeing will help the fingers at first I thought I would never use the arm again and on account of having arthritis they could only leave the ~~xx~~ full cast on for four weeks than a half cast for, four more.

I also have a picture of grandfather and grandmother Getty if you would like to see them but I suppose your mother had them also.

Now I am sending a copy of my marriage and then I have. four children.

Robert lives in Savannah Georgia has two sons and one is being married April 7th I am flying down for the wedding, I gererally go down there in Jan or Feb but this I skipped until now.

I was surprised to hear that the Getty name had been changed from Goettie I think I like the Getty better.

How is your mother , you know it is a shame that none of us know each other, we would pass one by on the street and never know it, but I guess that is the way it goes althom I do know when my Dad was living and Uncle Frank Getty would come down here we always got to see him one time I was meeting my children from school and Uncle Frank said to Raymond he was about six he told him that he was going to send him a pony and do you know that boy just set on the curb every day waiting for that pony to come, I felt so sorry for him, and we had a market at the time and one nite Maurice and the young man that worked for us came to the back door Dad was inside and told Ray that there was a horse outside and the Young man who worked for us was pulling on the long tail that Maurice had gotten from the packing house but the pony got away. Well Ray sure did feel bad, and if Uncle Frank would have come around he sure would have told him off.

Now if you will answer and let me know if you want the names of all mother and Dads grandchildren I will try to send what I know.

Hopeing this fines you all well and when you see Mom tell her I said Hello.

Sincerely;

Dear Cousin:

Received your letter and I hope that the rest of the information I have down is O.K. You, I never knew that the Getty name had been changed but I think that I like Getty better. And it was also nice to read about Grandmother & Grandfather Getty for I never knew either of them of course Gram's was dead before I arrived but I do know that I remember hearing of Grandmother and I also have a cut glass sugar bowl that belong to her, also some pictures of both of them. If you would like to see the both of them I will send them to you.

Now the Michael J Getty that you wrote to is Oliver grandson, possibly the reason he did not answer not knowing you and also that they are in the law business. You might have heard of Gerald for he was the public defender on the Richard Speck trial. I will give you his address and also if I see him I will ask him about the letter/

Dear Cousin:

Received your wonderful letter and first I want to know if you want me to keep these paper of the family tree. Also I have some corrections for you to make: Could have been my mistake .

John X Getty death was Nov 24, 1936 my mistake

Oliver P Getty birth was Aug 13 1886 my mistake

Joseph C. Ross Mother ~~her~~ (Madian name Reta) ✓

Joanne Marie Ross birth May 13 1959 -

Robin Edinia Horan birth Sept 20 1954 ✓

Raymond (mother-in-law Madian name Flossie Shinsbarger ✓ June's (mother-in-law M name Margaret Whiken ✓

That is about all I can find at present, I have talked to James Getty wife and I know that he is going to fill in the paper's as soon as he can for his mother Elizebeth has been in the hospital for a few days as she did have two strokes and she is now afraid to walk, I have not seen her since I have been back home but we are going out there for Matthew graduations party on June 3rd. We sure have been having the birth-days and also two graduations this month for Joanne graduates from 8th grade also this month, so we have been coming and going around here.

I went out to June's for a few days for a mother and daughter Mass and breakfast the week after I came home from Georgia, than came to have Mother day and Mass also breakfast out.

We all had a very nice time at Robin & Steve wedding I went there on March 29th and Dolores, Joe & Joanne drove down also Gerald but there was so much going on that I did not get a chance to ask him about the family tree we are suppose to see him soon and I hope that I can ask him to fill in the papers as well as he can, also if I talked to Florence I will ask her about them also.

Just tried to call Georgia but could get no answer I thought she might know about our grandparents wedding where is was, for I myself never knew Grandfather & the only think I can remember of Grandmother is after she died my Dad received a few things and one of them was a cut glass red and white sugar which I still have and think very much of it. Now I also have two pictures one of Fredericka and one of Christopher, if you would like to see them I can mail them to you for one is a small one and grandmothers is about five by seven, the small one he is standing and someone is sitting of course I only know that mother told me that the one standing was grandpa, so I hope that I am right.

Well I guess I have kept you reading long enough and please excuse me if I have made many mistakes for my eyes dont go to well since I had the one taken care of and I guess with that and the arthritis I will have to be satisfied.

Let me know if you want me to sent the two pictures only I would like to have them back what for I don't know only like my daughter Dolores said they are antique. I also have a paper (Newspaper) of my Uncle Frank Hoffman the time he fell in quicksand while hunting the paper is dated about 1886 sure is started to fall apart.

Hope that you are feeling well and to hear from you again.

Sincerly Yours

We all had a very nice time at Robin & Steve wedding I went there on March 29th and Dolores, Joe & Joanne drove down also Gerald but there was so much going on that I did not get a chance to asked him about the family tree we are suppose to see him soon and I hope that I can asked him to fill in the papers as well as he can, also if I talked to Florence I will asked her about them also.

Just tried to call Georgie but could get no answer I thought she might know about our grandparents wedding where is was, for I myself never knew Grandfather & the only think I can remember of Grandmother is after she died my Dad received a few things and one of them was a cut glass red and white sugar which I still have and think very much of it. Now I also have two pictures one of Fredericka and one of Christoper, if you would like to see them I can mail them to you for one is a small one and grandmothers is about five by seven, the small one he is standing and someone is sitting of course I only know that mother told me that the one standing was grandpa, so I hope that I am right.

Well I guess I have kept you reading long enough and please excuse me if I have made many mistakes for my eye's dont go to well since I had the one taken care of and I guess with that and the arthritis I will have to be satisfied.

Let me know if you want me to sent the two pictures only I would like to have them back what for I don't know only like my daughter Dolores said they are antique. I also have a paper (Newspaper) of my Uncle Frank Hoffman the time he fell in quicksand while hunting the paper is dated about 1886 sure is started to fall apart.

Hope that you are feeling well and to hear from you again.

I am thankful. only the
very bad.

If you know I have a picture of Grandmother Hoffman (mom m) taken in our living while she stayed with us. & just above her on the wall is the same picture of Gram Betty a person can just see it, but again I don't remember what became of the large picture of course I was only about 7 or 8 years old. I only wish I had the red wood rocker that Gram H was sitting in, but I do have a red & white cut glass sugar bowl that my Dad received after Gram Betty passed away. everyone would like to have it.

present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy de-

Judgment but let some drops of Thy

Prayer

Lord make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Crash Kills

FRI 10-19-1971
Fort Wayne

Vacationers

A retired Fort Wayne couple vacationing in Michigan was killed outside Bay City Thursday evening when a trucker hauling a load of sugar beets ran a red light, lost control and rolled on top of their car.

Michigan State Police said Walter P. Noll, 66, and his wife, Virgilia, of 3518 S. Harrison St., had just driven through Bay City about 6 p.m. when the mishap occurred.

Police said the Nolls were northbound on Michigan 13 and had pulled off the road near an intersection to read a road map. As they were sitting in their car, a southbound beet truck, driven by Daniel R. Rouech, 39, of Munger, Mich., ran the light at the intersection and struck another car.

The semi careened off the car and rolled over on top of the Noll auto, crushing it to the frame. Police said the couple was killed instantly.

The occupants of the other car, a Florida couple also vacationing in Michigan, were taken to Bay Medical Center where they were in good condition. Rouech was not injured.

Rouech told police he was taking his load to the Monitor Sugar Co. in Bay City.

There were no charges immediately filed, but police said the investigation is continuing.

Mr. Noll, 66, a retired driver-salesman for Holsum Bakery, and his wife were natives of Fort Wayne and members of St. Patrick's Catholic Church. They resided at 3518 S. Harrison St.

Surviving are five sons, Richard P.,

In a long, rectangular master bedroom it for a drop a job to float the bed and was in a room where there was a headboard that looks like a romantic veranda; appeared master bedroom; boards to smooth golden oak. With all this behind us, why not try a headboard from barn - on down the road.

Scene changed in wild decade of illegal brew

By DICK ISENHOUR
Of The News-Sentinel

Some of the popular songs of the late 1920s and early '30s could have been, "I Love You, Still," or "A Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight."

The decade was one of lawlessness nationally, highlighted by frequent raids on illicit liquor businesses. This was the era of Prohibition, and there were many seeking to quench their thirst for illegal brew.

One of the first, and apparently few, raids on illicit liquor establishments by local authorities came Jan. 19, 1929, when more than 4,000 gallons of mash were emptied from containers at a farm on Leo Road, just north of the city.

The raid was led by then Sheriff George Gillie, who had been sworn in just a few days before. It involved county police, state police and members of the city's dry squad, a squad of policemen formed to enforce Prohibition laws.

Gillie, incidentally, would fight lawlessness for only one four-year term. In 1932, he was elected congressman from Indiana's 4th District, a post he held for 16 years.

At the raid, in addition to the mash, police discovered a still, several gallons of moonshine whiskey and sugar alcohol, kegs, jars, bottles, barrels and other paraphernalia. The owners of the farm, John and Mary Pehtel, claimed they knew nothing of the illegal liquor on their land. Victor Clamants, caught fleeing the premises when police arrived, was charged with possession of liquor and a still.

Enforcement of Prohibition laws by local police apparently was somewhat lax during the next few years. There were a number of bootleggers operating openly in the city and county, thanks to "irregular" shift members of the dry squad.

One of the first raids on an illicit liquor operation in Allen County in the Roaring 20s was made on this farm on Leo Road, just north of the city limits. Leading the raid was then Sheriff George Gillie, second from left.

According to John Ankenbruck's "History of Fort Wayne, frequent shifting of dry squad members to other departments seemingly prevented a continuous crack-down on illegal liquor.

By 1931, the situation had become so bad that Walter E. Helmke, then county prosecutor, wrote this to J.A. Curtin, the city's board of safety chairman: "I am aware of the fact there are hundreds of people who are not in sympathy with the enforcement of the Prohibition laws of this state. However, I also know there are just as many, if not more people who believe in the enforcement of all laws as long as they remain on the books. I further feel no official of this city or state has the right to permit his personal feelings to control in matters involving enforcement of the laws."

Eventually, the federal government was called in and on the nights of July 10 and 11, 1931, federal agents raided several roadhouses and speakeasies.

On the first night, 24 proprietors, bartenders and musicians were arrested in raids at the Jimmy Cress restaurant on Lincoln Highway West, Riverside Club on River Road, Orchard Ridge Club on Lower Huntington Road, a roadhouse on Aboite Center Road, and places at 1948 E. Washington Blvd., 124 E. Wayne St. and 3322 Garland St. A raid the next night at a soft-drink parlor, 2202 Fairfield Ave., netted a large array of liquor, 16-gallon kegs of moonshine, 200-gallon tanks of beer and the destruction of a brewery.

Similar raids occurred over the next couple of years and, in 1933, Prohibition, enacted in 1919, was repealed.

'Oceans of love' keep marriage afloat 60 years

Clyde and Florence Pranger Gladieux, New Haven, will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary at an open house from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at Goeglein's Reserve, 7311 Maysville Road. The couple was married March 4, 1924, in St. John's Catholic Church, New Haven.

Here is the story of their courtship, as told by Florence:

"When I was about 16, I used to go to market on Barr Street to sell vegetables with my grandmother. Clyde went to market also. He says that's where he first saw me, and it was love at first sight.

"When I used to play the piano at the New Haven theater, he always managed to take me home, even if it was in his old Dodge truck. When I was going to International Business College, he would write me letters, always in blue envelopes signed "With oceans of love and a kiss on each Wave," and I guess that's why we sailed through these 60 years.

"Clyde worked for Standard Oil Co. for 31 years, then had his own oil company until he retired. Since we had the office in our home, I was kept busy with all the bookwork and caring for our seven children.

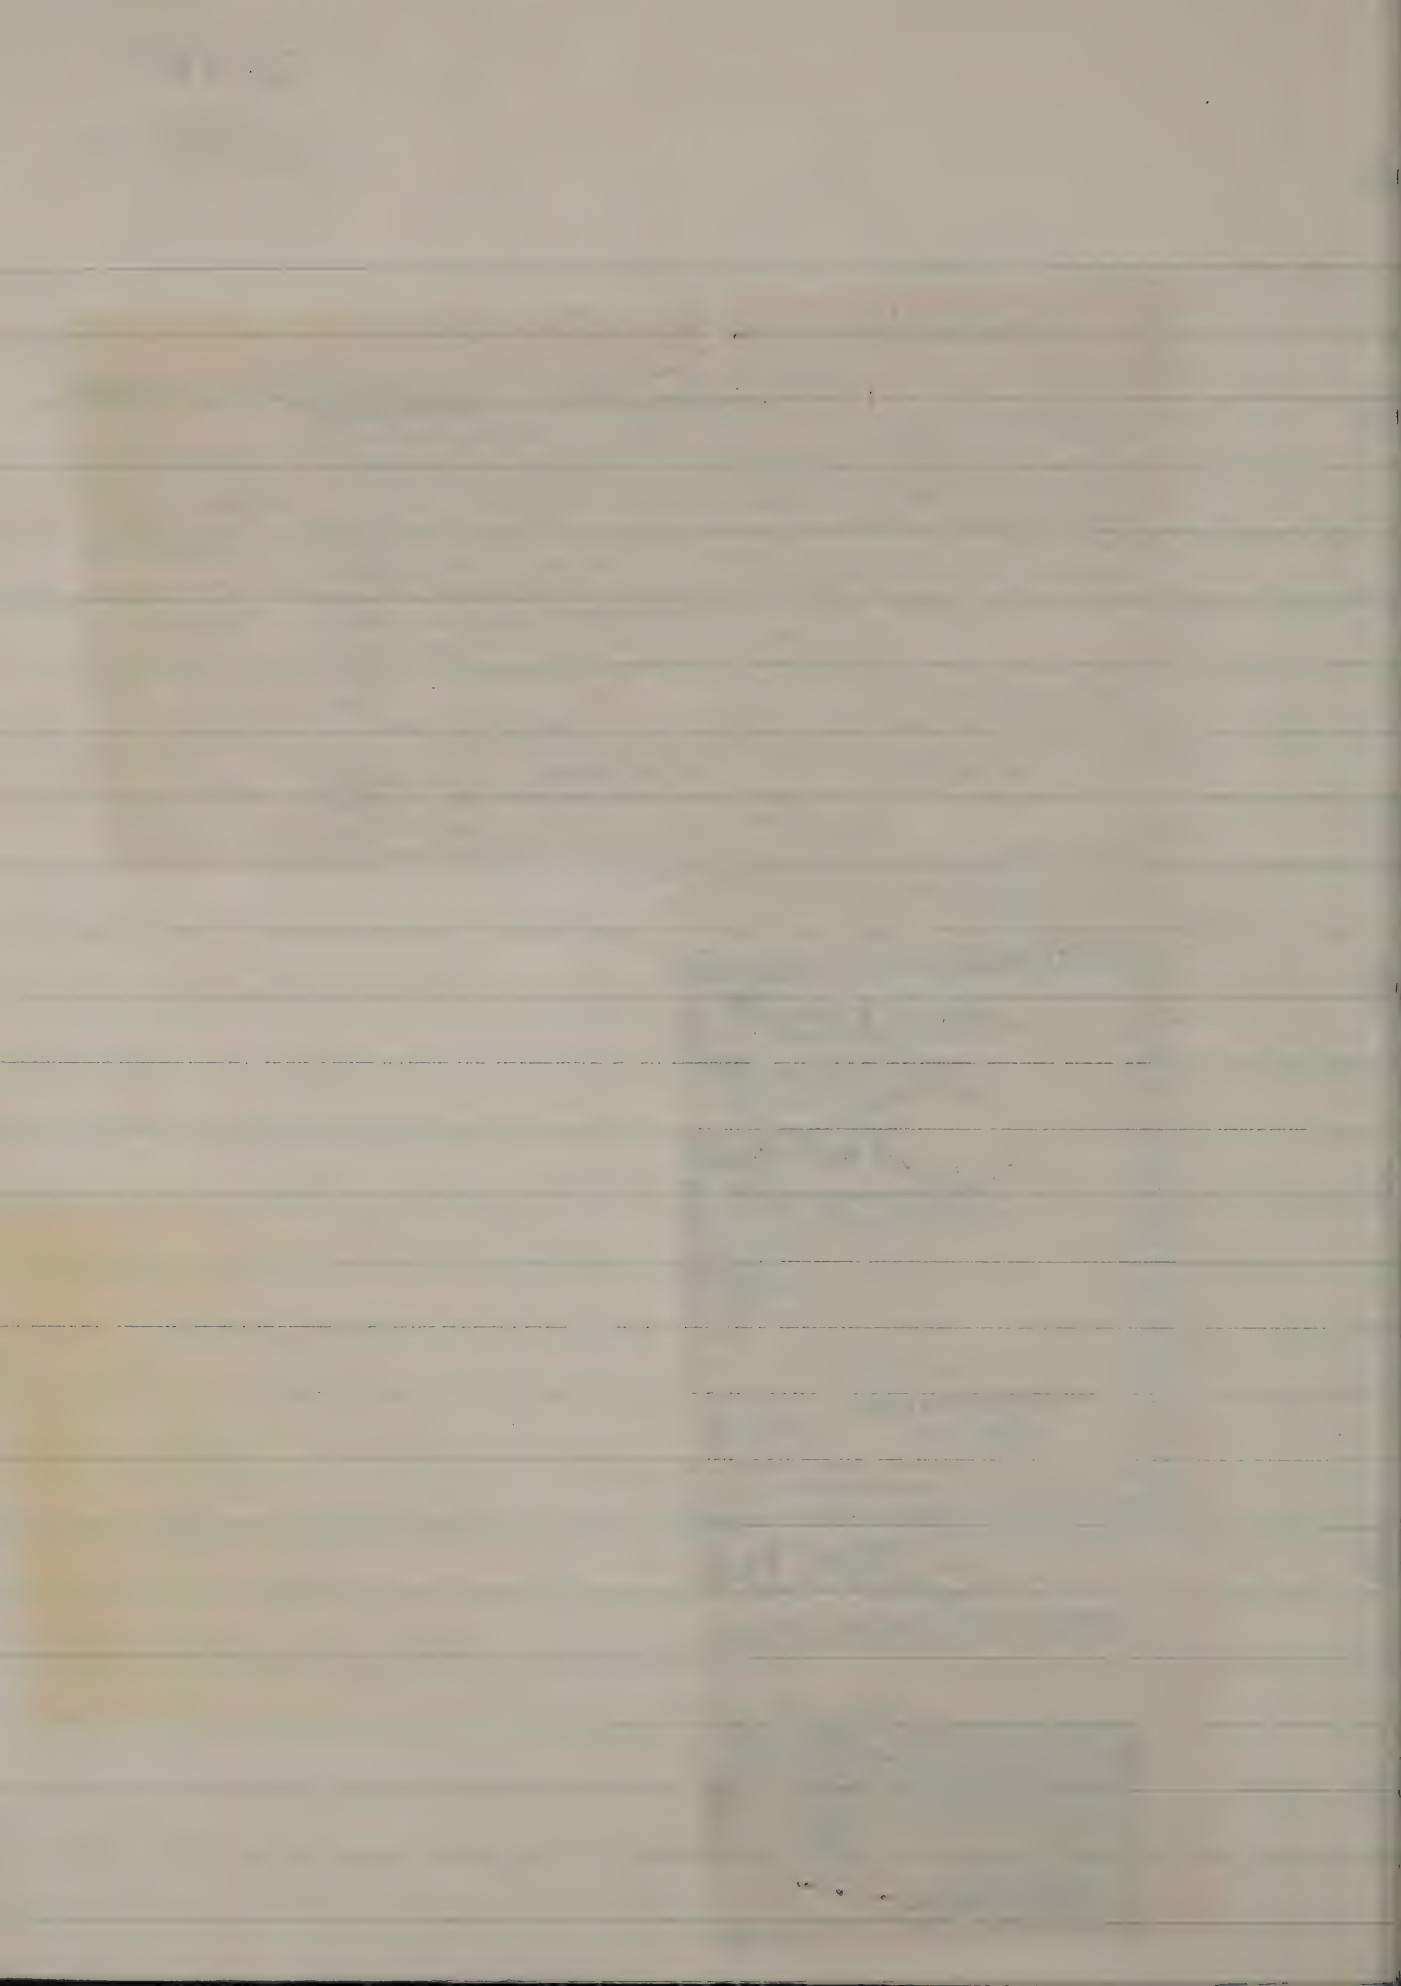

"Clyde always had a big garden; and he loved to fish, so we spent our winters in Florida.

"God blessed us with a wonderful, loving family; and even though we had many sorrows along the way, we always managed to come out on top."

A noon Mass will be offered for the couple Sunday at St. John's before the open house to be given by their children. They are parents of Patricia Hughes, Boise, Idaho; Jack Gladieux and Charles Gladieux, both of New Haven; Joan Johnson and Marshall Gladieux, both of Fort Wayne, and Michael Gladieux, Ann Arbor, Mich. A son, Robert Gladieux, died in 1962. They have 23 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. Clyde Gladieux is retired after 31 years with Standard Oil Co. and seven years in his own oil company.

Haven. He attended St. John the Baptist School there, and St. Jude School in Fort Wayne, before entering Our Lady of the Lake Seminary, Wawasee, and Mount St. Mary's, Norwood, Ohio.

Father Place was ordained May 20, 1972, at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception by Bishop Leo A. Pursley, and appointed that summer as chaplain of the CYO Summer Camp at Lake Wawasee. In August of 1972, Father Place joined the staff of Marian High School in Mishawaka, with residence at St. Adalbert Church in South Bend.

On July 2, 1973, he was appointed assistant at St. Jude Parish, Fort Wayne, with a teaching assignment at Bishop Dwenger High School. In February of 1977, he joined the diocesan marriage tribunal as associate officialis, serving as a teacher at Bishop Dwenger three days a week — with residence at St. Jude Parish, Fort Wayne — and serving as assistant pastor at St. John the Baptist, South Bend, on weekends.

IN THE FALL of 1977, Father Place was assigned to graduate studies at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. He became chancellor of the diocese on May 15, 1978. Three years later, in June of 1981, he was appointed administrator of St. Paul of the Cross Parish, Columbia City, a position he has held until the present time. He was appointed a consultor to the diocese in 1982.

Father Place was born May 9, 1946 in New Haven, the son of Gene E. and Betty H. (Gladieux) Place.

1976 Electronics Firm Directors Accused

A complaint was filed in Allen Circuit Court today contending two directors of Progressive Electronics Inc., have improperly withdrawn funds from the firm.

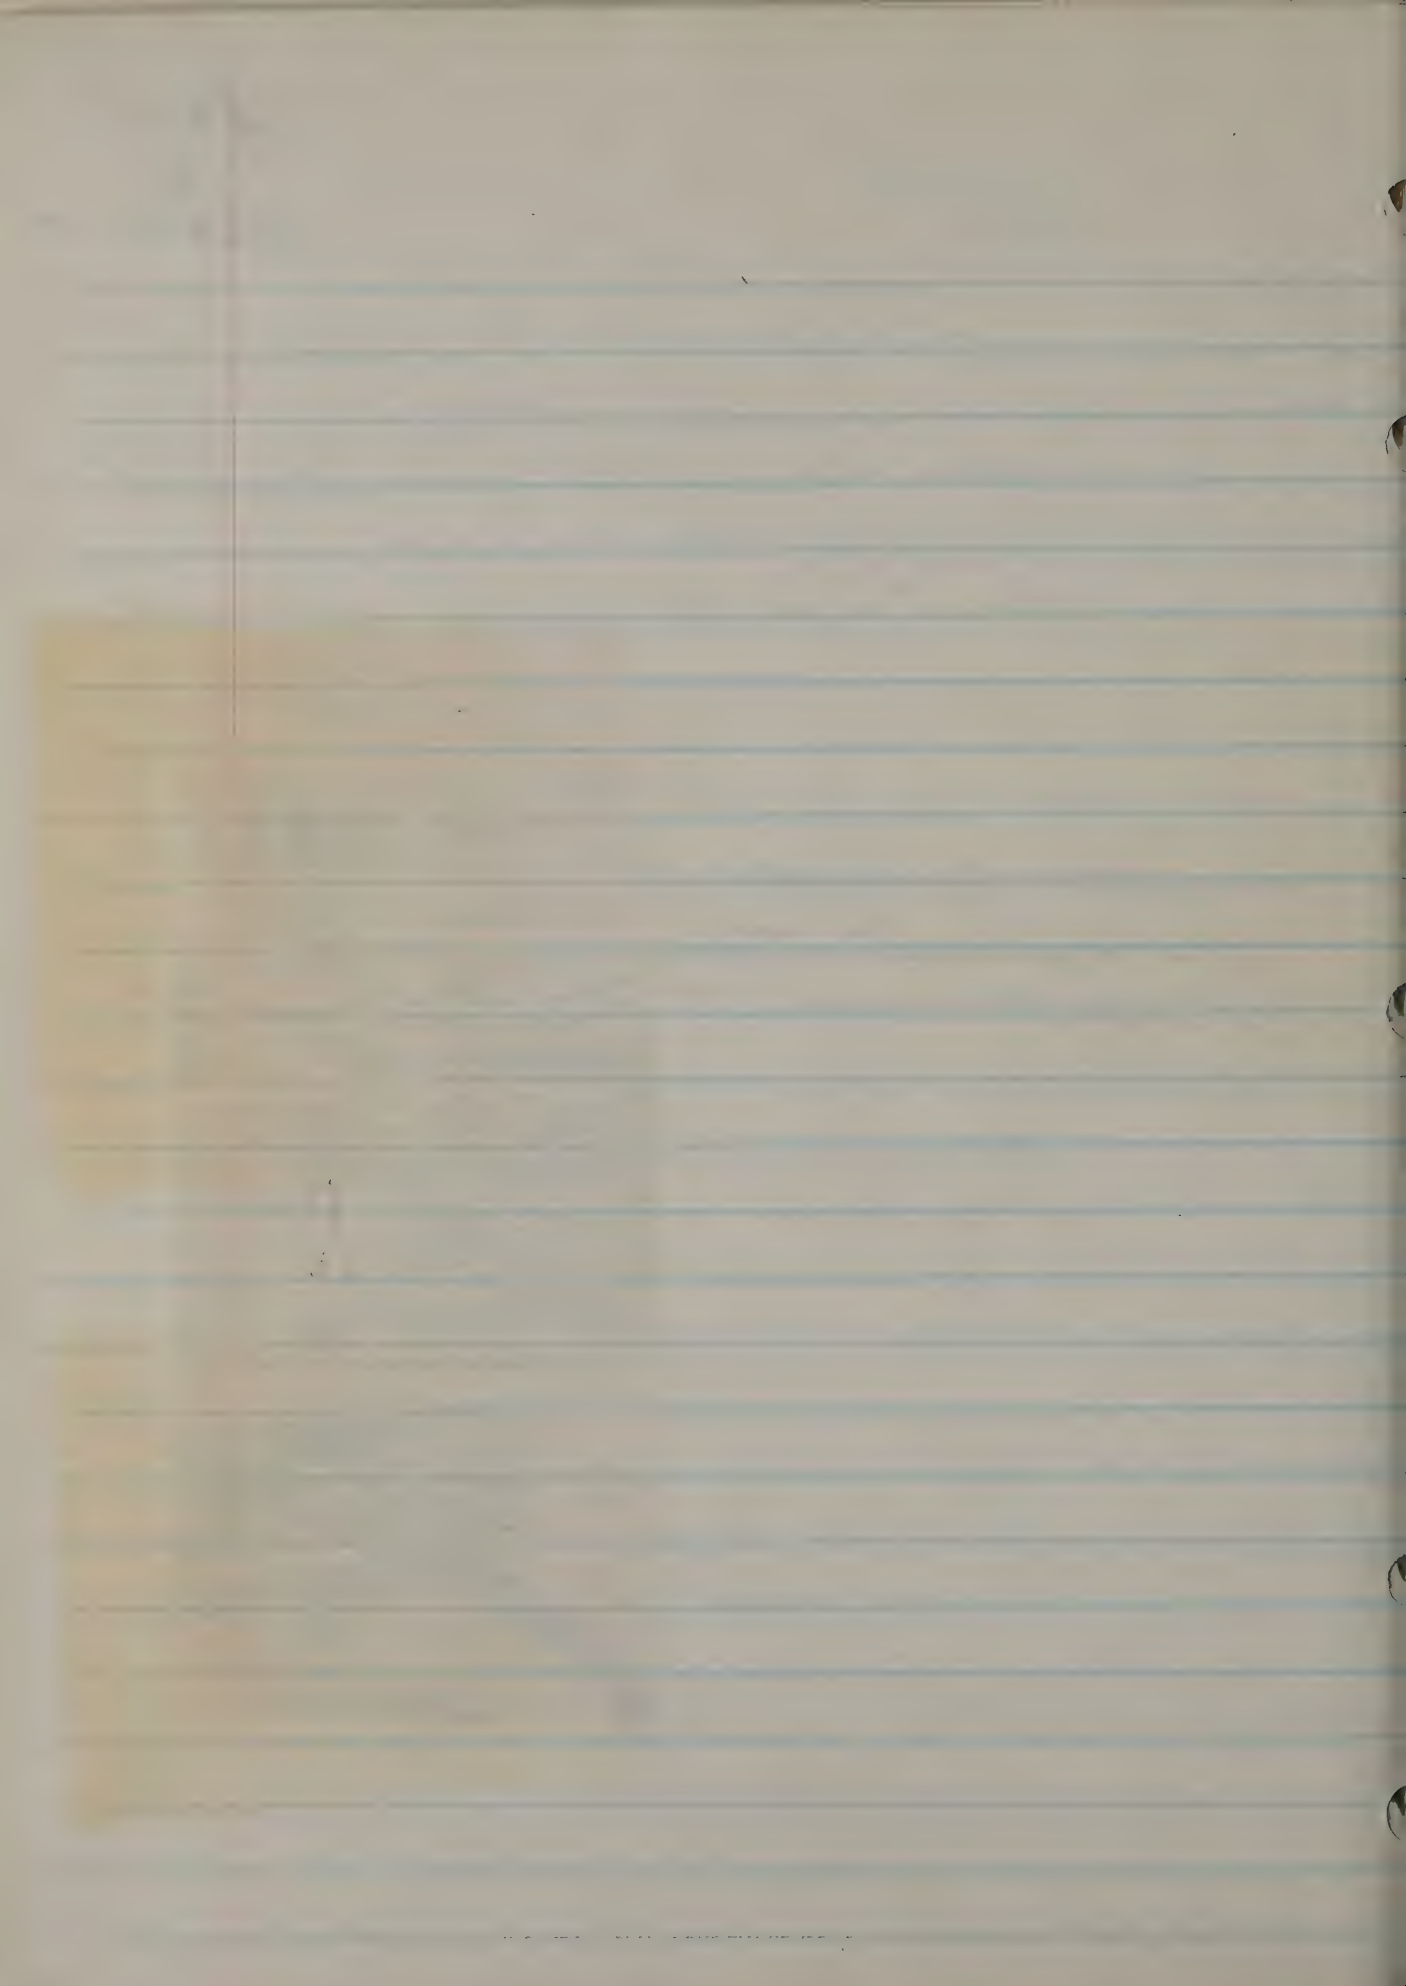

The class action case was brought by stockholder James M. Gladieux against Progressive directors Howard W. Bice and Donald W. Williams. The case, filed for Gladieux by attorney Donald F. Strutz, does not list an address for the firm, stating only that it is an Indiana corporation.

Gladieux asks for a judgment awarding persons who purchased common stock or certificates of indebtedness of Progressive Electronics Inc., receive their money back for the purchases.

The stock purchases from July 10, 1974, through March 11, 1976, totaled $102,500, while the certificates bought during the same period equaled $145,500, the suit claims.

It contends the defendants withdrew funds from the corporation in 1976 by exchanging shares of stock for the money. Bice and Williams also withdrew funds in 1975 and 1976 by claiming the money was due them for payment of alleged invoices which were non-existent, the complaint charges.

The defendants knew the unlawful withdrawal of funds would bankrupt the corporation, the complaint says.
